

AFFIDAVIT

On November 2, 2010 I, Cynthia D. Hite, was a poll watcher at the 31-910 Precinct located at 1148 Huffman Road, Anchorage, Alaska. I observed polling from 7am to 2:30 pm on behalf of the Alaska Republican Party. While at the polling place I observed several noteworthy events including:

- 1. A voter signed in and picked up a ballot envelope from the poll worker then turned to go into a voting booth and stopped and stated that the ballot she was holding was already filled out.
- 2. A man came in and stated his 93 year old mother wanted to vote but could not make it to the precinct. He asked if there was a way she could still vote. There was a lengthy process with the poll worker and he walked out of the facility with an envelope and a ballot. About 15 minutes later he came back stating there was no ballot in the envelope. He was given another ballot and left.

I affirm the statements above to be true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, and under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Alaska, I affix my hand this Twentieth day of November, 2010.
